The following is published in the Gazette: Colonial Secretary's Office. Hongkong, 2nd May, 1891

Sir.—As there appears to exist a considerable amount of misapprehension as to the increases proposed to be made to the salaries of civil servants, I append a table which was drawn up on bad third. Time, 4 min. 5 2-5ths sec. the completion of the Estimates for this year. The so-called increase of 35 per cent. is arrived at in this manner.

The salaries of the principal officers and senior clerks were fixed in starting by Ordinance No 13 of 1860. By a proclamation dating as far back as 1845 the rate at which sterling was to be paid was fixed at 4s. 2d. (Incidentally I may mention that during all this period the market value of the dollar was generally 4s. 6d. and over.) Now taking as an example a salary in the above list fixed at £800, this at 4s. 2d. is equal to $3,840 At the time that the recommendation for the general increase of salaries was made the value of the dollar was about 3s. Id. £800 at 3s. Id. is E $1,344. The two added together amount t 85 a year less than the sterling pay at the rate of exchange of the day.

It is also to be observed that several modifications and restrictions have been made, the result. of which is that few officers obtain the fult value of the proposed increment. A difference Mr. Choufleur's Vindicator, 10st. 12lbs. based probably on the expense of passages to and from England is made between officers who come from there, and officers in the service who are of local habitation—the latter only receive 20 per cent. increase, and have to pay 4 per cent to a Widow and Orphans Fund. Another important, element is that the increase is based on salaries as they existed in 1875 -and any increases since then have to be taken into account to reduce the fival balance. In conclusion, what the civil service practically obtains is what has been granted to the The CESAREWITCH STAKES; a sweepstakes of been in vain. Word came several days ago that sister services: Navy, Army and Consular, viz., that their salaries shall be paid at approximate rate of exchange for the day instead of at the

SHANGHAI SPRING RACE MEETING

FIRST DAY, 27TH APRIL. To judge by the number of people, ladies as well as gentlemen, who were up at the Grand Stand, the attractions of racing have not yet diminished in Shanghai. The course was very heavy, precluding any fast time being made. was rapidly drying up, however, as the races progressed, which is shown by the fact that Dan, in the last race of the day, did the mile in one-fifth of a second than Hero in the second race, al hough mero made the pase uncommonly fast at Sentenced to three weeks' imprisonment with the beginning of his race. The win of Black Leaf in the opening race was a most popular one, and it will be noticed that the Cup goes back to the hong from which it came. There was a good deal of excitement before the second race, as Hero, who was convoyed on to the course as usual, was in a most impatient mood, and went right round the course after the first false start, and subsequently made no less than four separate attempts to bolt round the course the opposite way before he would join his ponies. So little did this affect this magnificent pony that he ultimately won the race in a center. start two dozen ponies in the Griffins' was no easy job, and there were several false starts, but it was a splendid race when they did get off, and cutonic's win was very popular. Apart from the splendid loyalty and hospitaliy of the Russian colony at Hankow, the main nterest attaching to the recent visit of the zarewitch centros in the general spirit and doails of the Viceroy's reception of his Imperia guest. Nothing has been left undoue that could have been thought of to make the welcome hearty, espectful and dignified. From first to last the Vicetoy has been most anxious to show the de nified friendliness of the Poking Court, of which was by force of circumstances the temporary representative. It is, we hope, need ess to refer to the absolute lack of foundaion of the mischievous ramour which gained surrency some time ago that Chang Chih-tung had refused to see the Caarewitch. There never has been the shadow of excuse for the circulation of such alying libel on the international courts sy of so responsible an official. The stringent orders for avoiding any annoyance, the carefully gives us a peop, and a ned, while rude Boreas arranged sequence of visiting with due reverence the rank of omissaries as well as the personal call paid by the Vicercy, the details of the banquet and farewell, all show the loyal and enlightened statesman who abates nothing of his natural eeling "China for the Chinese," while he uses foreign machinery, despises feng shui for the sake of factory chimneys, and welcomes the foreign guests of his sovereign. At the banquat at the "The Pavilion Saulit Stream," Chang Chih-tung course received his guest at the jetty, lad the procession of chairs to the Pavilion, conducted the party through the beautifully ornamonte courts and at the due stage of the feast proposed the toast of the day. In proposing the healths of T.I.H. the Ozar and Czarina and in respond ing to the healths of the Empress Downger, Emperor and Empress of China proposed by the Usarewitch, the Vicercy used language whose graceful friendliness was much more significant but the latter had to cast off, as the weather was a the present era of Chinese history than the or dinary run of after-dinner sneeches. After the promise of the exchange of photographs, His Excellency escorted his guest to the river side. Tuet before the departure of the Russian vessels down river, the Viceroy's interpreter went on board to convey his chief's good wishes and prosented fans to the Ozarewitch and Prince George each inscribed with an original poem in the Viceroy's hand writing. I have had the pleasure of reading these posms, good specimens of the carefully balanced style full of appropriate references; that to Prince George, as written doubtless the second, being the happier and freer, Altogether the whole ceremony of welcome was carried through without a single hitch; is to be hoped the Russian Prince is gratified with his reception by the Chinese authorities; cortainly those who know China will agree that the Vicercy of the Hukuang is justifying the expectations formed of him as a far-seeing, sensible man. For some time past we have had a lion's share of what we usually have to contend with all the year round, especially in the Springbig wind with the southerly gales. Summer thrusta-us back without ceremony into winter. This is the recard of the last 24 hours:-6 a.m. yesterday the coldest registered was 5 degrees Faht, with the end of a southerly gale which had lasted its orthodox three days; at noon in the shade it was 76. Without warning the wind voesed suddenly to the north, and blew with such force that junks and sampans were tossing about on the river as though they were at sea; the Taku had a good roll too. During the night snow fell two inches in depth, and at 6 a.m. the thermometer registered 20 degrees, and the ground was covered with snow-quite a winter scene. However, the sun is shining brightly, and the wind is abating, so it will be of short duration. The steamer Kaifong left here last Sunday morning bound south; she was ashore on the west bank on Monday, and the gales make her position a grave one. The steamer Chetoo heavy for such craft to contend with. Last night there was a large fire at the lower end of the native town; the extent of the damage

IMPERIAL QUARTO. INDGLISH AND CHINESE DIC''IONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDABIN PRONUNCIATION.

An Angle-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography isplays the success of an attempt to make th Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. To illustrate the vost scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration: . [83] Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various appliestions and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherto pub-For 'practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives wh understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Enrepeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted o parties resident in England and interested Chins it cannot but be invaluable occasion

It comprises upwards of two thousand-large 4 Vois. IMPEBIAL QUARTO, Price, $20. A Large REDUCTION in PRICE is made to Purchasers of SIX or more Copies.
